

PENCILLETES.

The weather vacillates. The waters are all full up. The "mountain boys" are here again: Cider Mills at W. W. Woodruff & Co.'s.

It is another harvest for the cheap boarding houses. Oliver Chilled Plows and Repairs, at W. W. Woodruff & Co.

Knoxville's siege of courts has fairly set in and it will be kept up for some time to come.

Care Mills and Evaporators. Send for prices. W. W. Woodruff & Co.

Judge Hook spoke on the political issues of the day to a large gathering of republicans at Chattanooga, Saturday night.

Galvanized Barbed Fence Wire. Send for prices. W. W. Woodruff & Co.

The steamer Water Lily arrived from Rockwood last night, and will receive freight to-day and leave for the return trip to-morrow.

The opposition street car line seems to have suspended operations. The proprietors no doubt grow rich enough to retire from business.

Circular Saws and Gum Belting, all sizes, at factory prices, at W. W. Woodruff & Co.'s.

A car load of horses bought up by Jones & Davis, at the livery stable of M. E. Thompson & Co. was loaded and shipped south from this place yesterday.

The popular auctioneer, E. A. Akers, opened out his regular fall campaign last night. He will have overflowing audiences while the federal court boys are in town.

The damage case of S. L. Saul, jr., against the Knoxville fire insurance company, stands for trial at this term of the U. S. circuit court. It has been continued over till next Monday, however.

Mr. Wm. Hayes, city street boss, has been very low at his home in west Knoxville for some weeks, and we are sorry to learn that his condition seems to grow worse, so that there are but little hope of his recovery.

It is perhaps known to most, if not all our readers, that a branch United States court has been established at Chattanooga. The first court will be held the first Monday in October, by Judge Key. The marshals, clerks, etc., are to be appointed by the officers of the court at this place, as deputies, and will be appointed sometime during the present term of court.

Our townsman, Mr. Leon Jourdon, had his valise stolen from the office of Dr. J. U. Lee, who he was visiting in Chattanooga Saturday, according to the Times. The valise contained some valuable papers, in pending lawsuits. No clue to the thief, but a reward was offered. The Times is evidently misinformed in writing Mr. Jourdon down as supreme court clerk.

The jail is now full to overflowing, having received numerous accessions temporarily for the courts in session. Dan Potter, the Cooke county murderer, was brought down yesterday by Sheriff Boyer to await supreme court. Sheriff Boyer also brought several court boys from Cooke county. Deputy Marshal G. T. Larkin, brought down yesterday morning. Andy Harper, charged with perjury and a revenue violator from Cooke county. Deputy G. W. Ray, of Grainger county, brought down four revenue law violators.

CAPTURING AN ABSCONDER.

A. T. Newman, of Dandridge, Overhauled and Arrested.

A. T. Newman, a saloon-keeper, who has been operating quite extensively at Dandridge of late, was arrested in this city Sunday night. There have been several capias for him in Jefferson county for some months past for selling whiskey in violation of the law and for other crooked transactions. Last Saturday he bundled up secretly and took to the river in a boat for the purpose of absconding and getting rid of the clothes of the law, having a man by the name of James to boat him away. As soon as his disappearance was known, the officials of Jefferson county telegraphed to Chief of Police Harper to look out for and overhaul him at this place. Sunday night, soon after dark, a detachment of the police found that their boat had landed at their wharf. They laid up for some time up the river to come in under cover of night. James was found in possession of the boat and was arrested, after showing considerable fight. He was armed with two large pistols. Newman was found and arrested by officers Reeder and Hicks at J. T. Houser's boarding house, where he was locked up in his room, and at first refused amittance. He was kept in custody till Sheriff Harvey Bales, of Jefferson county, arrived yesterday and took him in charge, returning with him on the evening train.

James was arraigned before Recorder White and fined for carrying a pistol, but was then released, there being no further charge against him. A lot of goods were also found in the boat which Newman was smuggling away. They were taken charge of and are held for orders.

Newman attempted a similar dodge several months ago and was pursued by Sheriff Webb. He finally returned, however, and staved the matters off a little longer, by giving security. He was once a well-to-do and prosperous citizen, and was at one time, not long since, a candidate for the legislature in Jefferson county, and all this trouble was brought on by dealing in whiskey.

As to that Authority.

The fierce young men of the Tribune assume to charge the CHRONICLE with deliberately publishing, "without any authority whatever," a card from John Hutson and Albert Scott, colored, denying that they gave their consent to having their names enrolled in the third ward Henocck and English club, Wednesday night. Now, the CHRONICLE is not given to making publication of such cards without the best of authority. They say they "are ready to undertake to prove" that neither of the above gave any authority or consent for their signatures, etc. Well, we can not say what they may "undertake." One thing we do know is, that they can "prove" naught thing. The original copy of John Hutson's card, written as he said at his dictation, his own signature attached and brought to this office by him and a friend in person, is now in our possession, where the gentlemen can examine it to their heart's content, if they don't choose to take our word. As to the affixed card signed Albert Scott, that did not have his signature, but was afterwards furnished on authority and by request of Mr. Hutson, who said he had instructions to do so from Scott. Now, this we presume will satisfy the young men on the question of "authority." Further, we have good reasons to believe the above facts were known to the writer of the Tribune article, for their informant, Moses Smith, who proposed the names to the club, was conversant with them and no doubt informed them.

Celebrated Dr. Wm. H. Stokes, BALTIMORE, writes: "I confidently recommend to the medical profession Golden's Liquid Extract of Beef for consumption, debility, weakness and indigestion." Sold by Sanford, Chamberlain & Albers, and Hunter & Co.

Salary Grabbers.

As was announced in our city council report yesterday morning, the board of aldermen have voted the mayor and themselves the same salary received last year, which is $1,000 for the mayor and $75 each for the aldermen. It will be remembered that in February last an ordinance was passed giving the mayor $800 and the aldermen $50 each, passed by the 10 to 6, as the board was then divided. The mayor vetoed it, however, in the interest of economy. Before sending in his veto, and after the passage of that ordinance, the mayor instructed the recorder not to pay any of the salaries till the minutes were signed. The salary grab was accomplished this time by a vote of 7 to 5, four members being absent. Two of the original 10—Dickson and Irvin—also voted with the original 6. Yesterday morning, some of the no salary aldermen, saying that it is a poor rule that won't work both ways, went bright and early to Recorder White, to order him not to pay any of the salaries till the minutes were signed; but they were too late, for the mayor had already drawn a portion of his.

Personal.

Hon. Robt. McFarland came down yesterday from his home at Morristown to attend supreme court.

Mr. Chas. L. N. Read, who has for some time past employed in the pension office at this place, was to leave this morning for Chattanooga to accept a position as telegrapher and clerk in the freight depot of the E. T. & V. G. railroad. Charley is a clever young man, of first-class qualification, and we wish him success in his new position.

Mr. Walter Meek, brother-in-law of Mr. Geo. W. Albers, left on yesterday's noon train for a visit to Cincinnati.

Mr. Julius Mayer returned yesterday evening from a pleasant trip to Cincinnati, Chicago and other points. He reports Cincinnati lively and the exposition in full blast. We noticed among the remembrances brought back by him a handsome brquet, a contribution by a lady friend.

Col. Juc. A. Turley, of McMinn county, president of the East Tennessee farmers' convention, arrived on yesterday evening's train.

Miss Mary Gaut returned home yesterday evening from a visit to Lexington, Ky.

Mr. G. A. Gibbins and family, of Riceville, arrived in the city yesterday evening.

Judge R. M. Barton, of Chattanooga, came up yesterday evening to attend the courts.

Capt. John G. Heap, of Bakeraville, N. C., is in the city on a business trip and gave the CHRONICLE a welcome call yesterday, as is always his wont, when in the city.

Capt. R. M. Williams, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a son of Col. John Williams, is in the city paying a visit to his many relatives and friends hereabouts. Capt. Williams is a lawyer of prominence in Brooklyn. He is expected to address the Hancock and English club Thursday night.

Hon. C. J. McKinney, of Hawkins county, is in the city attending court and circulating among friends.

Messrs. W. P. Brownlow, of the Jonesboro Herald and Tribune, and Jno. W. Brown, of the Rogersville Press and Times, are in the city and remembered the CHRONICLE with a call yesterday.

Miss Rosa Kirkpatrick, a charming young lady of Chattanooga, who has been visiting here for some days, guest of Miss Sophie Young, one of Knoxville's most popular daughters, left yesterday morning returning home.

Mr. J. W. Hinson left on yesterday's noon train on his return home to Atlanta.

Mr. J. J. Colie, of Jefferson county, Capt. Robt. Kittrell, of Loudon county, federal court jurymen, and Capt. Wm. Allison, of Loudon, were among the welcome callers on the CHRONICLE last night.

Rev. J. C. Barb, of Mosheim, Greene county, who has been attending the Lutheran synod near here, left yesterday evening returning home.
